

Il Carrubo #1276

Welcome to this enchanting townhouse with captivating charm, equipped with a private garden and swimming pool. This delightful home, distributed over two levels, enjoys a privileged position that will leave you amazed!

You will be greeted by a generous open-plan living area, featuring a cozy lounge, a functional kitchenette and a dining area that opens onto the east-facing veranda. On the same floor you will find a comfortable double room with single beds, which can also be converted into a double bed, and an elegant bathroom with shower.

Upstairs prepare to be pleasantly surprised by the master bedroom, which boasts a covered terrace where you can savor your morning coffee while admiring the enchanting sea view. The sleeping area is completed with another double bedroom with a lovely bunk bed and an additional single bed on the mezzanine. An additional bathroom with shower completes this level, ensuring comfort and privacy for everyone.

Outside, the well-kept garden and private swimming pool offer a serene oasis in which to relax, an authentic escape